

ANNEXE 5

PLAN DES ABORDS DU PROJET

An aerial photograph of a district in Lyon, France, overlaid with several colored polygons representing different urban planning zones. A large yellow oval at the top left is labeled "Zone de loisirs". Below it, a green oval is labeled "Zone commerciale" and contains the text "Pathe Carre de Soie". To the right of the commercial zone is a blue oval labeled "Zone industrielle". In the center, a red rectangle is labeled "LOT C" and is surrounded by a pinkish circle. Another blue oval labeled "Zone industrielle" is located below the central lot. At the bottom right, a purple polygon is labeled "ZAC". The map includes numerous street names such as Avenue de Bohlen, Rue Victor Vata, Avenue Ampère, Rue de la Poésie, Rue Jacquard, Carre de Soie, Rue de la Sore, Rue Decomberousse, Rue du Cimetière, Emile Zola, Rue de Pierre Marie, and Avenue des Gamins. Other labels include "TOMMY'S DINER LYON Carre de Soie", "Cirque Imagine", "McDonald's", "BOEST LYON", "Ancien cimetiere", "Rue Jean Baratin", "Vaux en Valin - La Sore M", and "DS17". A scale bar indicates "100 mètres".