

Plan de situation: Boulevard Gros Tougne haut éch 1/25000

The map displays a detailed topographic view of the Gros Tougne region. It includes numerous place names such as Le Verdet, Jerusalem, Les Crepes, Orais Hresp amint, le Paozet, Les Terres Lagonette (Mottaret), les Teignes Mottaret, le Grand St-Jean-Granges, le Gros Tougne Breche, and Le Plan des St-Martin. The terrain is characterized by blue contour lines indicating elevation changes. Water bodies are shown in light blue, and forested areas are shaded in green. A network of roads and paths is depicted with black lines. Specific ski routes are highlighted, including 'Piste du Teton', 'piste de fond-talon', 'piste du Doron variante', and 'piste de fond-talon'. A prominent red line runs diagonally from the upper left towards the center-right of the map.

Plan de situation: Boulevard Gros Tougne haut éch 1/25000

The map displays the Gros Tougne river system and surrounding terrain. Key features include:

- Le Verdet: A small settlement in the upper left.
- Le Plan: A location in the center-left.
- Les Cretes: A location in the center.
- Les Tignes: A location in the center-right.
- le Gros Tougne: The main river system flowing through the center.
- Doron: A tributary river flowing into the Gros Tougne.
- Teton: A tributary river flowing into the Gros Tougne.
- Red line: A line indicating a specific route or boundary, possibly a road or a proposed development.

[illegible]

Plan de situation: Boulevard Gros Tougne haut éch 1/25000

Plan de situation: Boulevard Gros Tougne haut éch 1/25000

This topographic map illustrates the Gros Tougne region, featuring a network of ski routes and trails. Key locations include Le Verdet, Le Planet, Les Crêtes, and le Gros Tougne. The map shows various ski routes such as 'Piste du Teton', 'Piste de fond', and 'Piste du Doron'. It also depicts the 'Le Planet' area, 'Le Gros Tougne', and 'Le Verdet'. The map includes contour lines, water bodies, and a red line indicating a specific route or boundary. The scale is 1/25000.